

"Reformation Sunday"

"The love of money is the root of all evil: it is through this craving that some have erred from the faith, and pierced many with sorrow."

"Let each one give what he or she has decided in the heart, not reluctantly or under coercion, for God loves a cheerful giver."

